

I listen to K-Love and other Christian stations as I drive to and from work. This music puts me in a pleasant mode to deal with both traffic and work. If these stations are lost more anger will appear on the road. These type of radio station are a service to the community by the peace and grace that Jesus send to us.